Writing

Ever heard of Yukio Mishima? See how his book may come on the screens.

Yukio Mishima is one of the greatest Japanese novelists of all time. Most of his books have become best sellers. ~~However~~, despite the enormous author's popularity around the globe, his novels have never been transformed into a film. However this situation can change as Yukio Mishima's foundation has signed the partnership with Warner Brothers. Readers and fans can only guess, ~~which~~ which novel will come on the screen. In this article the ~~the~~ film creation based on the novel 'Golden temple' is going to be considered.

~~Mapping~~ The plot of the novel describes a life of a young monk that experiences emotional and mental breakdown during the World War. He ~~expects~~ is waiting for temple to be destroyed by the bombs, but after his expectations did not meet the reality he decides to put the Golden temple in fire by himself. In this novel Yukio Mishima tries to express thoughts on the role of faith and beauty in every person's life.

Moving to the crucial steps of the filmmaking process, we will consider cast, place of filming and decorations. ~~In~~ In regard to the cast, it has to consist of Japanese people, ~~only~~ to follow the book. However cast forming is not a big deal in comparison to the place of filming. ~~For filmmakers~~ It would be extremely problematic for filmmakers to get the permission from local authorities ~~as~~ as the temple is a unique and important religious site for Japanese people.

To conclude, it would be great for all fans of Yukio Mishima to experience watching the film based on the 'Golden Temple' novel as it continues author's legacy and attracts even more ~~more~~ attention to Mishima's work.
