Lovely day.

Finally, the winter holidays. I bet it's the best morning in my life. The winter sun reflected in the snow and got through the window of my room.

Well, I need to get up. I have a great plan for that day. My flat was fully decorated for Christmas except for one thing - the Christmas tree. I was thinking mostly about that tree since the December started.

And that's it. I'm free to do what I want. And I want a Christmas tree. Firstly, I have to find that tree and toys for it, 'cause I forgot where it is. Secondly, I have to find the place where the Christmas tree will be standing for the next three weeks, maybe more. And decorate it, of course.

So, the tree was on a balcony and toys was in my ~~the~~ wardrobe. It smells strange. Maybe because it's different from the other things in my house, I don't know.

It was middle of a day, so I decided to have some rest. I went to the kitchen and made some tea. The day is really lovely, actually. I heard ~~kind~~ ^{kids} playing outside. The sun is still shining bright. Everything is good. I'd like to sit through all day, but the tree wouldn't be decorated by itself. So, I went back to my room.

Few hours ^{be} passed. The Christmas tree was standing next to me. So bright, so beautiful. I'm glad. I'm happy, for real.
